Kuleana claim to you Commissioners who Quiet Claims of the Kingdom of Hawaii. I have a land on Lanai. Kaa is the name of the land, gotten from Kahili to Kaluahinenui. Kaluahinenui dwelt below Kaahumanu, the Lord of the land. My father, Kikipa lived under Kaluahinenui, thus it is mine at this time, not having been removed. Aloha to all of you. I am with appreciation to you.

Kaawa, Sworn.

I have seen the 2 parcels in the Ahupuaa of Kaa, on Lanai, in the ili of Kaena. Gotten from Kaluahinenui, to Manoa. Kaluahinenui nui received it from Kaahumanu I. This is a kula (dry land) parcel. Manoa died on August 8, 1848. Her elder brother (kaikunane), named Naluahine, is her heir.

Par. 1. Kula (dry land field) cultivated in uala (sweet potatoes).

Par. 2 Kula hanai holoholona (open land) for grazing animals.

These two parcel of land are surrounded on all sides by the Ahupuaa of Paomai<sup>4</sup>.

<sup>4</sup> The description of the parcels being "surrounded on all sides by the Ahupuaa of Paomai" does not conform with the configuration of the ahupuaa.
